Crock Sale 2005 - Governor Snyder Mansion

The 2005 crock features one of our most famous local landmarks - Governor Snyder Mansion. The style is a wide-mouth shoulder crock. It is dated and stamped. For the first time historical information about the landmark will be included with the crock.

Check out our lovely crock at the Selinsgrove library. Order forms are also available or you can print one from the Friends' web site. Contact: Joyce Bilger 743-5273 or Linda Wieder 743-7348.

Quilt Raffle

The quilt is on display in the library and we are sure you will agree it is lovely. This Amish flannel quilt was made by Nora's Quilts in Mifflinburg. It fits a full size/double bed to the floor or a queen size bed with a dust ruffle. Tickets can be purchased at the library and at the Selinsgrove Market Street Festival on Sep. 24th. The drawing will be held at the close of the Festival.

One Book Bus Trip

There are many events scheduled over the next three months in this cooperative program by five area libraries. For a listing of events, pick up a flyer at the library or check the One Book - The Killer Angels website at www.degensteinlibrary.org - click on One Book. A bus trip to Gettysburg is scheduled for Aug. 27; another bus has been added - sign up now! Flyers/reservation forms are available at the library. Contact: Liz Heim 837-1672

Open House

Friends arranged an Open House on July 20, 2005 to introduce Dr. Elizabeth "Betsy" Fordon, new Director of the Snyder County Libraries to our community. The Open House was well attended and featured delicious refreshments. We thank Joyce Bilger for doing a great job in arranging this event.

Tree Fest of Children's Books 2005:

Public viewing will be December 3 - Dec.16 at All Saints Church, Market St., Selinsgrove. The next planning meeting will be August 24th. Trees and wreaths to decorate are available through the committee. To participate or help contact Carol Bull cbull@ptd.net or call 374-0835. ☛

Book Sale Success

The Spring Book Sale was a great success, made even better by receipt of a $400 grant from Thrivent. Many thanks to Janis Gemberling who worked so hard to organize this event. Thanks to all who helped out and to everyone who supported the sale by purchasing books.

Friends would be grateful for donations of books in good condition (please, no outdated textbooks or Readers Digest Condensed Books) for our next book sale. Donations can be dropped off at the library.
